

Order of the Dean N. 1/2022
in connection with measures to mitigate the risk of coronavirus infection

Article I.
Preliminary provisions

- (1) This Order defines measures to mitigate the risk of coronavirus infection at the CTU FBME. The measures listed below are subject to change during the semester depending on the development of the epidemic, government, ministry, or health station regulations.

Article II.
Measures to mitigate the risk of infection

- (1) Persons (students or faculty staff) who are in mandatory quarantine or who have been diagnosed with coronavirus infection (SARS-CoV-2) are obliged to report this fact immediately at the email address: trousilova@fbmi.cvut.cz. In the email, employees are obliged to state who they have met at CTU and inform their superior about this fact. Students are obliged to prove the mandatory quarantine and to include additional information in the email:
- a) which study branch/ program and year they are studying
  - b) until when are they in mandatory quarantine.

Article III.
Final provisions

- (1) The Order of the Dean N. 16/2021 is cancelled.
- (2) This Order of the Dean becomes effective on March 14, 2022.

In the case of a discrepancy in the language versions, the Czech language version prevails.